If you decide to update your will using a codicil here are a few basic rules:

1. Just like a Will, you will need two adult witnesses to you signing the codicil. They, or their spouses, cannot be beneficiaries. They do not need to see the contents of the codicil, merely that you sign it in their presence.
2. The witnesses need to write in their names and addresses and sign the codicil.
3. Keep the completed codicil with your latest will, but not attached by pins or staples etc, in a safe place.
4. Send a copy of the will and codicil, in a sealed envelope if you prefer, to a trusted person. This could be your executor, solicitor, good friend, charity beneficiary and let them know where the original Will and codicil are stored.
