

BuildLondon Vacancy

Notification of BuildLondon Vacancy

Employer	Laing O'Rourke
Job Title	Environmental Advisor
No of Clients Req:	1
Pay	Competitive
Location	London Wide
Closing Date:	29th May 2017
Duration	Permanent
Hours	40-45 hours a week

Duties:

- Preparation of environmental management plans, including environmental topic specific management plans.
- Production of environmental assessment reports, tabulating data and preparation of charts, graphs, or sketches for reporting purposes and analysis of environmental data (including Key Performance Indicators) to identify, and where necessary, manage trends.
- Responsible for ensuring waste regulations and requirements are fulfilled.
- Work with subcontractors to ensure they comply with legal and contractual environmental requirements.
- Review of method statements and other technical documents including to ensure completeness and conformance to contractual and legal requirements.
- Responsible for ensuring consent's environmental conditions are being implemented on site.
- Inspection of facilities to monitor compliance with regulations and contractual obligations, as well as to verify compliance against consent conditions (e.g. Section 61, EA Environmental Permits, and Thames Water consents).
- Site supervision to monitor and record environmental performance and compliance undertaking inspections and audits of construction sites and sub-contractor operations.
- Preparation and delivery of environmental training, inductions and toolbox talks.
- Provision of guidance to address environmental incidents and complaints.
- Coordinate monitoring data on site

Essential Criteria:

- Previous experience in a similar role
- Construction site experience in infrastructure projects
- Degree in environmental / sustainability based topic, or equivalent
- Practical experience of effective implementation of ISO14001
- Production of environmental standards and site specific environmental management plans, including the identification of significant aspects and impacts
- Ability to monitor, report and analyse environmental KPI information and undertake environmental inspections to ensure where necessary corrective plans are successfully developed and implemented
- Proficient in MS office applications (Microsoft Word, Excel, PowerPoint and Outlook)
- Good communication and organisational skills.

Is a CSCS card required? No Type: N/A

This role is PAYE only.

Successful applicants will undergo a Drug and Alcohol test.

Please ensure you have the required cards and qualifications before applying.

Recruitment Process:

Please note that the application process has changed. Applicants must upload their CV/ Personal information accompanied with job reference to <https://buildlondon.org/register/>

Please put the following reference into the subject box of your email:

EnvironmentalAdvisor11May2017

CV's will be sifted during recruitment process so please send in CV.
Successful Candidates will be contacted to let them know if they have progressed.

Employer will complete recruitment process, contacting those that they feel they would like to interview.

Can brokerages please ensure we are aware which candidates they refer by having company name on reference.

To find out about our latest vacancies, follow us on Twitter @JCP_BuildLondon